

STUDENTS FEED - BACK

Student feedback analysis of the Department is indicative of the following –

❖ Syllabus

Students are appreciative of P.G. syllabus as it resonates with them. However at under graduate level, particularly in foundation course Eng. Language syllabus, they felt the need for more lesson or study matter by Indian writers. 20% students have expressed this.

❖ Infrastructure -

The P.G. Dept. Room has two sections for 2 semesters to operate / function simultaneously.

- Students feedback does indicate the need for separate library or reading room space as literature being a subject requiring quite and deep study. 30% Students have expressed need for this.

❖ Teaching Faculty -

English Being Studied by the entire college strength as long / literature / post-graduation literature, all 3 faculty are fully occupied and students appreciate the grammar and vocabulary module sets prepared by the department.

❖ Social Responsibility: -

The social responsibility awareness is deeply appreciated by 100% students. They voluntarily give services in orphanage, old age home and the mentor – mentee classes are also valued because some children relate better to their senior.

- 90 % of P.G. students feel that project and other such activities prepare them for future research work.
- 90 % students express appreciation for initiatives like the cultural exchange forum; Hope-Box, Honesty corner etc.
- 100% students appreciate the fresher party B 'day celebration and activities which lead to social interaction & personality developing like Earth day have 100% participation.
- 70% students appreciate the value added course specially the Basic publication skills which has given them the happiness of seeing their article and name in the Newspaper.